Employment Tribunals London South

Car parking is not available at the Office. The nearest car parks are indicated on the map overleaf.

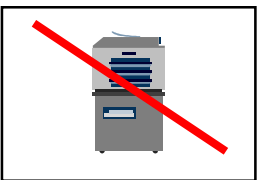

On your arrival at this Office, please report to the Reception desk, where the security officer will issue you with a visitor's badge. You must wear the badge at all times whilst in the building. The security officer will also tell you which waiting room to go to on the first floor.

There are two public payphones in the corridor leading directly from the lift area on the first floor. The use of mobile phones is prohibited in all corridors and Tribunal rooms.

We operate a no smoking policy within this Office and would very much appreciate your co-operation.

Unfortunately, we cannot offer photocopying facilities on site. There are a number of local establishments, including the Post Office near West Croydon Station, where you can obtain photocopies of your documents. Please ensure that you have adequate copies of papers for the Tribunal.

You will find a coin operated hot drinks machine in each waiting room. Food is not available but there are several sandwich shops and cafes within easy walking distance of the Office.

If you, or anyone attending with you, are a person with a disability and you are concerned about accessibility to the Tribunal and necessary facilities, please contact the Tribunal Office as soon as possible to discuss the matter.

For details of local hotels, please contact the Croydon Tourist Information Centre on 020 8253 1009 (or fax: 020 8253 1008).

Details of the expenses which can be claimed are set out in the expenses leaflet which can be found on the Employment Tribunals' web site. Claim forms will be available on the hearing day. Please note that professional representatives are not allowed to claim, unless they are on the staff of a Citizen's Advice Bureau or Free Representation Unit.
